David, your proposal does not remedy the problems we noted below. We do not agree.

David,

As a compromise, we would be willing to seek an expedited schedule where: (1) Defendants' opening brief would be due within 10 days after filing the proposed stipulation; (2) Waymo's opposition would be due within 21 days after filing of the opening brief; and (3) Defendants' reply brief would be due within 10 days after filing of the opposition brief. Please advise if you would be willing to stipulate to this expedited schedule. If not, we plan to move.

Best,

David

David, following up to our call yesterday, we do not agree to your proposed expedited appeal schedule. As they delayed in bringing the meritless Motion to Compel Arbitration in the first place, Defendants then delayed bringing their appeal. Now you seek an additional seven days for your Opening brief, yet only provide 14 days for our Opposition brief. We do not think your schedule is practicable, necessary, or fair under the circumstances.

Jordan,

I'm following up on our brief call of a few minutes ago. As we discussed, I would like to meet and confer about expediting the schedule of Uber's appeal of the order denying the motion to compel arbitration. We believe this appeal warrants an expedited schedule and hope you will stipulate. If not, we intend to move for an expedited schedule. Please let me know what times work for you today or please feel free to call me on my cell anytime today at 310-408-5462.
